About Us

Perry Impex, founded in 1999, is a reputable corporate organisation that specialises in the export and trade of a wide range of products, including Xanthan Gum, Carboxymethyl Cellulose LV, HPMC Powder, Sodium Perborate Monohydrate, etc. These given items, which are prepared under the supervision of skilled experts, are widely known and recommended for their precise composition, reliability, and exactness. Furthermore, the entire range is thoroughly inspected before being shipped to our valued clients locations. These given products, which come in a variety of packaging options, are well suggested and valued in this industry.

We established our foundation in this business with the primary goal of achieving a high degree of customer satisfaction and trustworthiness by meeting the changing needs of our knowledgeable clients.

We work with our mentor, Mr. Prashant J. Andharia (CEO), whose years of experience have earned us widespread acclaim and a large customer base around the country. Furthermore, his active commercial abilities have aided us in establishing a strong reputation in this area as a trader and exporter.
